WABASH WORKSHOP

On Saturday, September 28, a one-day history workshop will be held at the Honeywell Center at Wabash, Indiana. Registration will begin at 10:00 a.m. Through the courtesy of the Wabash County Historical Society coffee and doughnuts will be served during the registration period.

The program focus is on northern Indiana:

10:30 a. m., Miss Dorothy Lower, Allen County-Fort Wayne Public Library, "Building a Genealogical Collection—Resources Available for Genealogical Research at Fort Wayne."

11:15 a. m., Willard Smith, Goshen College, "Schuyler Colfax and the Election of 1868."

12:00 m., William E. Wilson, Indiana Historical Society, "Collecting Historical Manuscripts in Northern Indiana."

circa 12:20 p. m., Luncheon in Honeywell Center. After lunch David Hermansen, College of Architecture & Planning, Ball State University, an illustrated lecture, "Courthouses of Northern Indiana."

circa 2:30 p. m.: motorcade visit [participants will drive their own cars] to the Frances Slocum Cemetery. The program at the Cemetery will be given by Mrs. James VanBuskirk, Wabash County Historical Society, and Mrs. Mary O'Hair, Wabash County Historical Museum.

6:00 p. m.: Dinner at Honeywell Center. Following dinner, the Indiana Historical Society will hold a brief business meeting. James Kellar, Indiana Historical Society and Indiana University, "Search for Post Ouiatenon—A First Report."

The program should be concluded by 8:00 p.m. or very shortly thereafter.

This Workshop is sponsored by the Indiana Historical Bureau after consultation with officers of several local societies in northern Indiana. If well supported plans will be made to repeat the event in the fall of 1969. The Bureau is indebted to the Wabash County Historical Society and the Wabash Historical Museum for generous cooperation.

The registration fee which is $6.50 includes the luncheon and the dinner. Registration, accompanied by check made payable to the Northern Indiana History Workshop, must be received by Monday, September 23. Registrations may be sent to either the Indiana Historical Bureau, 140 North Senate Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana or Mrs. James VanBuskirk, Roann, Indiana.

Everyone interested in Indiana history is welcome.

STATE SENATORS OF INDIANA - A - L

In the History Bulletin for September, 1967, lists of elected state administrative officials were published. In November, the Bulletin carried a roster of the Indiana membership in the national House of Representatives. A list of United States Senators from Indiana appeared in December. Apparently, students and teachers of Indiana history, genealogists, and reference librarians have found these compilations to be useful. In this issue we are printing the first half of an alphabetical list of Indiana State Senators. Part II will follow. This careful compilation was prepared by Mrs. Shirley McCord of the Indiana Historical Bureau staff.

HANCOCK COUNTY'S LOG JAIL

The traveling historian will find an interesting two-story log structure at the southeast corner of Riley Park in Greenfield, Indiana. It was built in 1853 as the third jail in the county. It served its penal purpose until 1871 when it was moved and converted to residential use. The Log Jail was moved to its present site in July, 1967.

It now serves as the museum of the Hancock County Historical Society which owns it. It is filled with museum objects which illustrate the life and technology of pioneer days. The "prisoner room" is usually the focus of visitor attention. The massive logs are studded with large square nails placed there to discourage a prisoner from "sawing out."

The Log Jail Museum was dedicated on July 4. It is open to visitors on Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday afternoons, 1:00 to 5:00. A small fee is charged.

WANTED - DR. JOHN N. GREEN

Biographical information and a picture of Dr. John N. Green are urgently desired by J. Willard Montgomery, M. D., El Paso, Texas. Dr. Montgomery is writing on hospital facilities in the early days of the Civil War, especially those in Washington.

Dr. Green was assistant surgeon with the 19th Indiana when many of the unit were hospitalized at the unfinished Patent Office Building in Washington in October, 1861. After leaving the army Dr. Green lived in Indianapolis and is listed in city directories through 1888 as a physician and a dealer in real estate. In the directories his name is usually spelled with a terminal "e" - Greene.

The Indiana Historical Society Library and the Indiana State Library found some material on Dr. Green but additional data and a photograph are desired. If you have such information, please send it to the Indiana Historical Society Library, 140 North Senate Avenue, Indianapolis 46204.

DATELINE LEBANON

Ralph Stark, energetic historian of Boone County, has culled a number of choice items from the county press of yesteryear. The Bulletin staff enjoyed them and hope that you will.

Ten cents per line will be charged for obituary notices to all businessmen who did not advertise while living. Delinquent subscribers will be charged fifteen cents per line for an obituary notice. Advertisers and cash subscribers will receive as good a send-off as we are capable of writing, without any charge whatever. Better send in your subscription now as the cholera is abroad in the land.

— Lebanon Patriot, August 29, 1895.

A lady visited Lafayette, Ind., the other day, who, in gathering up her dress to escape the mud, exposed to view a beautiful white skirt, the rear breadth of which was made of a half-barrel flour sack, upon which the indelible brand of the miller was still visible, "ninety-six pounds, extra super-fine—warranted."

— Boone County Pioneer, March 6, 1869.

The Pioneer columns are open for the publication of brief obituary notices of Boone County people provided they are sent in within a week after the death, but old notices, sent in a month after the death, will not be used unless paid for at five cents a line. Obituary poetry, same rate. If original, ten cents a line.

— Lebanon Pioneer, October 10, 1889.

When A. M. French, the man who named Lebanon, was asked by a fellow-citizen of Montgomery County, as to what sort of a place Lebanon was, he said, "It is good, strong land, and will yield ten bushel of frogs to the acre and snakes enough to fence it."

— Lebanon Pioneer, April 26, 1877.

A fellow who likes to have plenty of victuals, and who had led a rather loud life, joined church and was called on to pray; he said: "Oh, Lord, give everybody in this town a barrel of beef, and a barrel of pork, and a barrel of molasses, and a barrel of pepper; then he hesitated, and said: "Oh, hell, that's too much pepper!"

— Lebanon Pioneer, March 3, 1876.

Marshal Davis should arrest and prosecute the boys who "canned" that dog and started him north from one of the Lebanon street livery stables, Sunday evening, during church services. Besides disturbing the congregation at the M. E. Church, it might have caused a runaway and the loss of life and property.

— Lebanon Pioneer, November 29, 1888.

The telephone mania has struck Lebanon. Some of the small boys first tried the experiment, but now a line of communication is in operation between Land's and Hutchings' stores. On last Tuesday there were about a dozen short lines in operation in town, and they worked so completely that a conversation could be carried on without interruption.

— Lebanon Pioneer, February 14, 1878.

An editor out west printed an item, says the Yale Tribune, which stated that "the man who was hugging the hired girl had better stop or his name would be published." In a few days 25 citizens paid up their subscriptions and told the editor to pay no attention to foolish stories going around.

— Lebanon Patriot, May 19, 1904.

BASEBALL ON THE STREETS. — For several weeks we have noticed a knot of small boys playing baseball on the northeast corner of Meridian and Main streets. As long as they do not play more than two or three hours a day, it is all right, the wagons and teams can wait till they get through. But if they get to playing all day, they will interfere with public travel.

— Lebanon Patriot, November 21, 1867.

If you have any old cracked pottery in the house, don't throw it over the back fence into your neighbor's yard. Save it, and a hundred years hence, it will be worth fifty times as much as now. The battered teapot your great-grandmother threw away would be worth ten dollars now. There seems to be a mania for everything that is old—except old maids.

— Lebanon Pioneer, March 8, 1877.

Gunmakers of Indiana. By Albert W. Lindert (n.p.: By author, 3d edition, 1968. Pp. 217. Illustrations. $15.00.)

Albert Lindert's first publication on Indiana gunmakers appeared in 1964. The present third edition includes the additional data accumulated in four more years of persistent research. The book is divided into three parts: Part I is a collection of pioneer stories and anecdotes which has a broad appeal. Part II is an alphabetical list of Indiana gunmakers with brief biographies compiled after an enormous amount of investigation. Part III presents a description of pioneer gun manufacture and data on Indiana-made guns. Mr. Lindert has produced a valuable volume dealing with a specialized but important aspect of pioneer life in Indiana. The author's address is Box 469, Holbrook Road, Homewood, Illinois 604320.

PAPERS OF THOMAS RILEY MARSHALL SOUGHT

John E. Brown, graduate student in history at Ball State University, is doing research on Marshall who served as Governor of Indiana (1909-1913) and Vice President with Woodrow Wilson (1913-1921). Letters, documents, or any other information on Marshall's public or private life are desired. Address all correspondence to John E. Brown, Department of History, Ball State University, Muncie, Indiana 47306.
